Job opportunities to develop whole family SEND work in Hertfordshire

Supporting Families are leading a project funded by Department for Levelling Up Housing and Communities. The project is designed to increase whole family focussed work when supporting a child / young person with SEND. The project is focussing on children/ young people without an EHCP and who are at risk of suspension/ exclusion and / or on a reduced time table. The project is being piloted in Dacorum and St. Albans districts.

We are recruiting two 12 months fixed term contract roles:

Family Support Co-ordinator \(SEND\) and Senior Family Intervention Worker \(SEND\)

The Senior FIW will line manage the Family Support Co-ordinator and not be responsible for direct work with families.

If you have / know someone who has a passion for improving outcomes for children, young people with SEND and their families, this is an exciting time to stamp your mark on a new SEND early help whole family response.

The closing date for applications is Sunday 10th December and interviews will take place Wednesday 13th and Friday 15th December.

The poster features a maroon and purple gradient background. At the top left is the 'Bounce Forward' logo, a stylized 'B' with the text 'bounce forward' below it. The main title 'Anxiety Unravelled' is in large white font, with the subtitle 'Supporting my child with Anxiety' below it. A dark blue cloud-shaped box on the right contains the heading 'Highlights' and a list of three items: 'Three, 1hr sessions', 'Live or on-demand', and 'Lifetime access'. Below this is the heading 'A three-session online course for parents' in bold dark blue. The text below reads: 'The world around us can generate plenty of uncertainty and affect the way we go about our daily lives.' and 'You may be more worried than usual or perhaps you are in the midst of a growing cycle of worry and concern that you'd like to unravel. You are not on your own.' To the left is an illustration of a girl with purple hair in buns, wearing a white t-shirt with a 'B' and blue pants. To the right is a pink cloud-shaped quote: '"Learning about the strategies to help us deal with anxiety was particularly useful and I am using these to help manage my own anxiety as well as my son's."' Below the quote is the text: 'Join us for a series of three 60-minute sessions to explore anxiety. The sessions will provide a space to think about your own responses and provide practical tips and advice that you can use at home to help your children develop their resilience to anxiety.' At the bottom are two buttons: a maroon one that says 'Click here to register' and a dark blue one that says 'Find out more' with a white arrow pointing right.

Carers in Hertfordshire

Making Carers Count

About Us

Carers in Hertfordshire is the leading countywide charity for unpaid carers looking after a partner, relative, friend or neighbour due to illness, frailty, mental health needs, disability or substance misuse.

We support all carers - children and adults - living, working or caring in Hertfordshire, and bereaved carers for three years after the death of the person they cared for.

Carers do not have to live with the person they are looking after to receive help and advice.

For more information about our services or how you can support our work, see the contact details below.
